A GTALES STORY

(Name) and the Big Crab

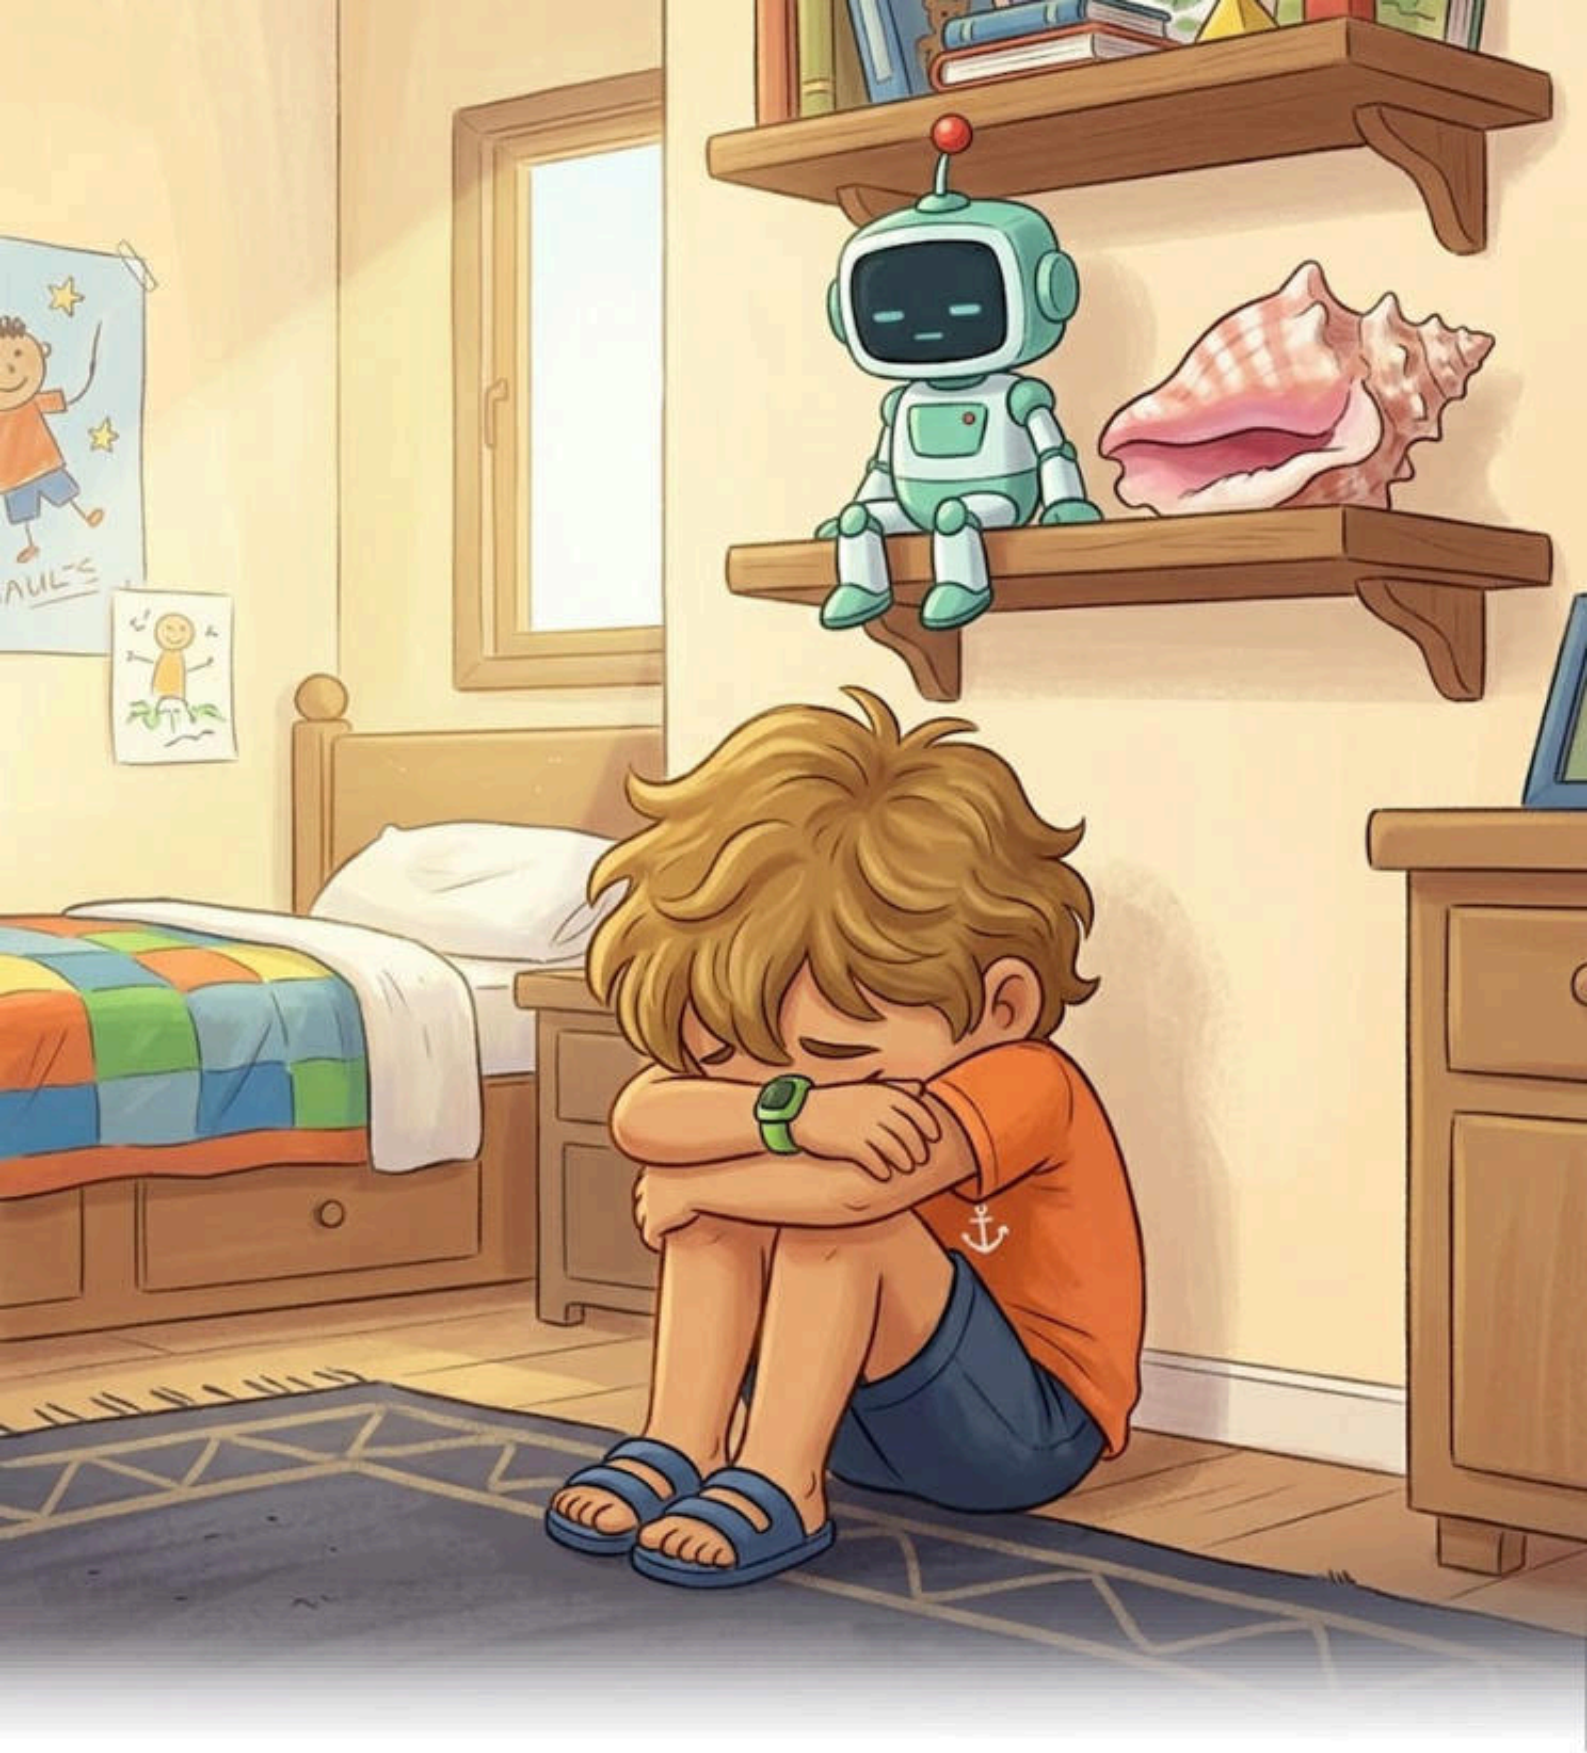

Made for (Name)

It was a sunny day at the club in (Place). (Name), (Age), had a new ball.

Then (Other) grabbed it. "Ha! Baby can't catch it!"

Other kids laughed too. (Name)'s band went grey.

(Name) did not say a word. He went home and shut the door. He did not tell anyone.

Then (Sidekick)'s eyes lit up, and the big seashell began to hum.

A sign said: Snap hid the Lifeguard Whistle. The water is coming in!

His band had a tiny screen.

(Name) stood tall. "I am here!" A shiny bubble shield popped up around him.

Little crabs were stuck behind a big rock.

"Can I help?" (Name) said in a strong voice.

Bump, bump, BUMP! His shield pushed the rock away.

A tiny hermit crab was crying. She had no shell.

"I'm Lulu. Snap took my shell, and he hid the whistle so no one can call Teta Turtle."

Look at the sand. Which way did Snap go?

- ◯ The big claw marks
- ◯ The little footprints

A seagull grabbed (Name)'s snack. "Ha ha! Too slow!"

"Stinky bird!" (Name) shouted, and his shield went down.

Then he stood tall. "Stop. I don't like that." And he walked away.

In the sand was a shell with words on it. "Read it, quick!" said (Sidekick).

YOUR TURN

Help (Name) read the riddle.

When someone is mean, I am the thing to do.
I am not a tattle. I keep you safe too. What am I?

There was Snap, the biggest crab, on a pile of shells.

Next to him was the Lifeguard Whistle! "Mine, mine, all mine!"

But look. Snap had a little band too.

Snap ran into a cave. "You can't find me!"

(Name) took one slow breath. "I will find the whistle. Then I will tell."

YOUR TURN

Trace the tunnels with your finger. Which one leads to the whistle?

- ◯ Pink shells
- ◯ Blue shells
- ◯ Yellow shells

Snap grabbed (Sidekick) with his big claw. "Ha! Tiny baby!"

(Name) froze. His shield went down.

The water rushed in, up to his knees!

"I won't hide this time," said (Name).

He remembered his Power Word. And he needed your help.

Teta Turtle swam in fast. "Thank you for telling me," she said, and pushed the water back.
